HONOLULU OIL GOING AT $4.65

Activity in Honolulu consolidated oil stock continued today on the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange. 1500 shares changing hands. 1500 of them at $4.65 and 100 at $4.75. No official word has yet been received from the mainland whether the rumor regarding the opening up by the government of the oil reserve lands is true. This morning the stock closed with $4.75 bid and $5 asked.

The sugar stocks showed little life. A total of 100 shares went between hands, but there was a firmer tone to the market. Five Pioneer, 50 Onomea and 50 Ewa traded at their usual prices. Waiakua jumped an eighth of a dollar, but no sales were recorded. Oahu went upward a quarter and 25 shares were sold at $29.25. In the unlisted securities there was little movement. 2800 Mineral Products going at 11, and 300 Engles at $4.60.

AVERY HAS NO WORD YET FROM WASHINGTON ON COASTWISE SERVICE

No word from Washington for another week regarding the lessening of the restrictions for the T. K. K. Co. steamers to engage in the American coastwise trade is expected by William H. Avery, advisor of the S. Asano syndicate, who is now in Honolulu again after a visit to the Kilauea Volcano with Mrs. Avery.

He bases his prediction on the statement that he expects nothing to be done until after George McK. McClellan has been back to the national capital for some time. Mr. McClellan, who is the Washington representative of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, did not expect to arrive back in Washington until next week.

Mr. Avery had a conference with Mr. McClellan regarding the coastwise restrictions before he left the mainland. Today he said: "I expect it will take Mr. McClellan nearly a week to get any results." The Pacific Mail Co., like the T. K. K. Co., objects to operating in the coastwise trade under the present burdensome restrictions requiring the securing of a special permit from the shipping board for every voyage in which the American trade is given service.
